About Us

We believe that your wedding should be just that: yours. At Eden Camp Modern History Museum, we will help tailor your wedding to exactly how you'd like it.

Your special day can be as intimate or extravagant as you'd like, with our uniquely versatile venue, flexible and bespoke package options to suit any budget, and exclusive use of our site*. Your celebration with us will begin with an entirely blank canvas on which to paint your perfect day.

Our venue is ideally placed in the heart of North Yorkshire with equal distance between Scarborough and York. Situated just a mile away from the food capital of Yorkshire, Malton, we are spoiled with fantastic locally sourced produce for our events. Being close to both Malton and York train stations makes us perfect for your travelling guests needing transport and accommodation.

A seamless partnership of historical buildings and modern technology, our varied and stylish venue offers an experience like no other!

Fully accessible, with a dedicated events space for up to 500 seated guests, and an array of vintage vehicles to arrive in style, Eden Camp Modern History Museum promises to provide everything you desire to celebrate your big day!

*Subject to availability with general museum opening hours.

Our 40s themed cafe features classic tea party decor, retro furniture and three separate areas to help map out your day.

If the vintage look isn't for you, not to worry! With complete versatility, our team are on hand to transform this space and decor to fit your needs!

Heritage Hall

Step into an entirely new atmosphere with our Heritage Hall; a space dedicated to events and exhibitions. Enjoy history with a modern twist, complete with skylights allowing the sun to shine on your day even inside!

This is also the perfect place to have a DJ or live entertainment, and fill the hall for dancing all night long underneath a metre wide mirror ball!

Dine amongst your choice of exclusive heritage with our restored vehicles full to the brim with history and charm.

With a full stocked bar, ample room for guests and an outdoor terrace, no one will want the party to end.

We're dog friendly too so feel free to bring your four-legged friend to walk you down the aisle!

Ceremonies

At Eden Camp, we want to be with you every step of the way in planning your wedding, which is why from January 2023 we will be a fully licensed venue to host your ceremony as well as host to the celebrations on your day.

Final Touches

Our museum has many a unique spot for a stunning first photo as a married couple, adding timeless elegance to any style of celebration. You can prepare for your debut in our behind the scenes spaces, to use as a dressing room, or simply a few moments together keeping you refreshed to enjoy the rest of your day.

Have your guests eagerly await your arrival at the museum gates, making a memorable entrance in a vintage car (or tank!) framed by our iconic Hurricane and Spitfire backdrop.

Perhaps even take a stroll down our 1940s shopping street or take advantage of the wide space we have and end the night on a high with a fantastic firework display*.

*Provided by an approved third party.

Top Tips

From making sure you get the very best out of your budget, to perfecting those special details, here are a few of our top tips to put an end to stressful wedding planning:

Know when to say no.

Any choice you make for your celebration should be yours. If you've brought in friends and family to help, then their opinion should be valuable, but if your Great Aunt Sylvia hijacks the guest list and wants to have every cousin and old neighbour you haven't seen since you were four, then you can say no. It can be ruthless at times, but trying to please every one is a losing battle so keep the focus on what you want as a couple, and graciously decline the extended guest list (sorry, Sylvia).

Keep Fuelled.

One of the most memorable aspects of the wedding is the food! Unfortunately, there are so many stories of weddings where the happy couple never get a chance to properly sit down and eat. Ask your venue/caterer to save you and your partner a plateful for the end, just in case - there's nothing worse than being hungry at the end of a very long day!

Stick to the plan.

Throughout the planning stage and on the day itself, you'll want to know exactly what needs to happen and when. We can help you keep on top of the practical side of things with a helpful timeline of what to do when, a full running order complete with set up times and even help with budgeting should you want it! We also know not everything always goes to plan, but don't panic; our team is here to help, so don't be afraid to ask!

Record your Memories

Your wedding album will be a source of happiness throughout your new life together, so getting the photos right is one of the most important things to think about. So, if you're going to splash out on something, it should be your photographer. Whether you pose for your very own fairy tale in photos or choose a series of candid snaps you never knew were captured, you'll be able to look back on the very best of your wonderful day.
